

Investment Objective

The Dean Mid Cap Value Fund seeks long-term capital appreciation and secondarily, dividend income.

Investment Philosophy

As traditional value investors, we believe that focusing on high quality companies that are undervalued for transitory reasons can lead to above average returns.

We believe that risk-adjusted performance can be enhanced by emphasizing stocks which exhibit the best risk/reward relationship (limited downside risk with meaningful upside potential).

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.98% / Net Expense Ratio: 0.85%. Expense ratios per the 7/29/2025 prospectus. Gross expenses reflect actual expenses incurred during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025. Effective December 1, 2019 the Fund's advisor, Dean Investment Associates, has contractually agreed to waive its management fee and/or to reimburse certain Fund operating expenses so that annual operating expenses do not exceed 0.85% of the Fund's average daily assets. This contractual agreement is in place through July 31, 2026.

Performance figures shown are past performance and are not a guarantee of future results. Due to market volatility, fund performance may fluctuate substantially over the short-term and current performance may differ from that shown. The value of the Fund's shares and their return will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data quoted. Performance data current to the most recent month end may be obtained by calling 888.899.8343. Dean, LLC.

Disclosures

<sup>1</sup>The Russell 3000® Index measures the performance of the largest 3,000 US companies designed to represent approximately 98% of the investable US equity market. The Russell 3000 Index is constructed to provide a comprehensive, unbiased and stable barometer of the broad market and is completely reconstituted annually to ensure new and growing equities are included. The index is representative of a broader market and range of securities than are found in the Fund’s portfolio. Index returns assume reinvestment of all distributions and do not reflect the deduction of taxes and fees. An individual cannot invest directly in an index; however, an individual can invest in exchange-traded funds or other investment vehicles that attempt to track the performance of a benchmark index.
